Three editors, Carl Bergman, business manager; Rod Chamberlain, managing editor; and Doyle Stockton, feature editor represented the Don.

Three trophies were awarded college papers. Pasadena won a cup for the best front page make-up, and Santa Rosa won a cup for the best editorial and the best news story. San Mateo did not enter any of the contests.

"Bull" sessions for discussion were held Saturday morning. The convention divided into small groups where the various departments of newspaper publication were discussed.

In consideration of financial problems it was discovered that only one

U. S. C. Plans League Of Nations Assembly

Santa Ana junior college is invited to take part in a model assembly of the League of Nations.

In view of the very great interest in the League of Nations among the colleges of Southern California, a model assembly of the League will be held in Bovard auditorium at the University of Southern California on March 21. Similar model assemblies have been held among the eastern colleges for a year or so.

The assembly as nearly as possible will be an exact replica of the assemblies held at Geneva, Switzerland. Fifty-four delegations of three members each, representing the fifty four nations now affiliated with the league will compose the assembly.

The model assembly will be held in two sessions. The first session will be held in the afternoon and the second session in the evening. Between the two sessions dinner will be served at the student union, at which Sir Hubert Brown Ames will speak.

Deans Of Women To Meet At Fullerton

Deans of women of the junior colleges of Southern California will meet at Fullerton today for the purpose of affecting an organization of women deans of junior colleges apart from the deans of four year colleges.

Mrs. Northcross is serving on a housing committee for non-resident junior college students at the present time.

Mischa Elman

RENOWNED VIOLINIST PLAYS HERE FRIDAY

Mischa Elman, renowned violinist, will give a concert under the auspices of the Santa Ana Ebell club in the high school auditorium, Friday evening, March 22, at 8:15.

Russian born, coming here in 1908 from concert tours in his homeland, Germany, Austria, France and England. Mischa Elman has made America his adopted country.

Kreisler is thoroughly imbued with the spirit of Americanism and expresses himself thus: "This is the country of self-expression whose laws are more suitable to artistic and natural ideas." "This is the country of the artist."

"The very fact that America is free from the musical traditions so hide bound in Europe makes the artist rejoice to give vent to the interpretative nations that come to his mind."

Tickets range from $1 to $2.50. Santa Ana Book Store is selling them; reservations begin Monday, March 18.

Associated Women To Give Assembly

That the Associated Women Students of S. A. J. C. will not lapse into a quiescent state as soon as their supreme event of the year—the St. Patrick dance is over, may be quickly ascertained by talking to the president of the organization, Alice Prather.

She announces that the A. W. S. is going to give a clever assembly about four or five weeks from now. Clara Kate Owens has been appointed to put over this assembly.

The mothers of the college women will be honored with a mother's day tea early in May. Because it is one of the few occasions at which the mothers are invited to college affairs, it will be one of the loveliest events of the year.

At intervals, the A. W. S. will continue its custom of selling candy and candied apples in an effort to raise funds for the treasury.

College Presidents Meet In Conference

Presidents from all organizations and clubs will meet at Ketner's tonight at six o'clock to discuss the subject of membership.

The purpose of each organization is to be considered, so that the field of one will not overlap that of the others. Too much responsibility has said to have been embodied in a very few officials heretofore, and one object at the meeting is to determine the equal distribution of work among all the members.

Delmer Brown will present a talk on membership, tellig who belongs to the clubs, Dean Fisk and President Hammond are to be present.

Dancing Contest Feature At Leap Year Dance Frolic

Southland Six Orchestra Engaged; Ball To Be Semi-Formal

Chaperones for the occasion are Miss Leck, Miss Miller, Mrs. Northcross, Mr. Scott, Mr. Fisk, and Mr. Newcomer.

Greetings, Indians!

Today we have as our guests fourteen students from San Bernardino junior college, who have come as guests of Santa Ana junior college students to present an assembly.

This is the third exchange assembly we have had this year, and all have been instrumental in promoting a more sincere and tangible feeling of friendship between the junior colleges. This idea of exchange assemblies is one of the best that has ever been introduced into our institution.

Let us all give the "INDIANS" from San Berdoo the glad hand of welcome, and make them realize that we are more than glad to have them as our guests for a day.

A. W. S. Week

This is A. W. S. week, in case you do not already realize it by the presence of the artistic posters, the publishing of the A. W. S. Don and the coming St. Patrick's dance.

Many students have been heard to complain that the A. W. S. does not do anything. In short they class the A. W. S. as a dead organization.

Just because the work of this organization is not always brought to light and played up, is no sign that it is an inactive club. The A. W. S. is one of the most active clubs on the campus in that the welfare of every girl in school is included in its work. This association is not a money making club. Instead it tries to help every woman find herself, because of the personal interest it has for the welfare of every woman on the campus.

The A. W. S. may do its work in a quiet, calm, and peaceful manner, seldom being lauded for the great work they really do, but they do accomplish something which no other organization does in this college.

Grab That Date

I have been wondering why the beauty parlors have been so crowded with J. C. girls getting finger-waves, marcel, water-waves, haircuts, manicures, and generally being beautiful.

Shiny noses, ruffled hair, and runs in her socks are the most dreaded things that could happen to a girl this week because she must get that date or forever hold her peace. She must look her best and make a good impression on the "boy of her heart".

The popular boy on the campus has to always be on the alert and protect himself from those Amazonian old maids who never had a date before. The men are growing beards and wearing old clothes trying to discourage some of these dateless maids.

But, girls, get that date! Grab it! Anyway, get that date and put the A. W. S. dance over. You will find out how a boy feels before a dance or party when he doesn't know whether you have a date or whether you will turn him down. Now girls, it is your turn to stand by and suffer while that other girl steps gracefully up and asks your "secret sorrow" for the honor of his presence at the A. W. S. dance. Get that date, girls!

Believe it or not Roy Wheeler got a "B" recently in a test.

Mrs. Robert Northcross Dean Of College Women For Ten Years

Supervises Living And Working Quarters Of Women Students

Mrs. Robert Northcross has had the interesting experience of being dean of women for the past ten years, starting this work two years after she came to Santa Ana junior college in 1917.

Since the A. W. S. has in its membership every woman in the college, Mrs. Northcross automatically becomes the adviser of this organization.

Although Mrs. Northcross tries to become personally acquainted with every woman in college her main work is to look after those who are away from home, or that are just new in the college. Many of the women live and work away from home, and probably Mrs. Northcross greatest field of work is to see that the living and working quarters are suitable.

The women of the college are divided according to the section of the county in which they live. Each section being represented by a woman on the cabinet whose duty is to look after the women in her section. These different members report to Mrs. Northcross, and in that way she can keep in closer touch with each woman.

Gais Parisians Have Birthday Party

A birthday party was the feature of the meeting of the Gais Parisian, Thursday. Each member was given an individual cake with one candle on it.

Eddie Gerhardt and Melva Fletcher gave a play in French. Melva Fletcher and Mary Cianfoni sang a French song. Then the members wrote a letter in French to some member in the class and each one read his letter.

The lunch consisted of sandwiches, potato salad, sardines and punch.

Women Studies Active In College Affairs

Each year finds more girls participating in the school activities. Out of 273 girls enrolled thirty are from out of Santa Ana, or its neighboring vicinity. These girls become automatically members of a club especially organized for out of town boys and girls. The club is known as the "O. K." club. During the course of the school year various social events are sponsored for the club by the three faculty advisers, Mrs. Northcross, Mr. Walter Scott and Miss Watson.

Fifty three girls are working away from home—some are clerking in stores others are typing, taking care of children, giving music lessons, and doing house work. Eleven girls are working for their room and board.

Every girl in school is a member of the A. W. S. by virtue of being a registered student. There are no dues. Meetings are called from time to time as the occasion sees fit. Alice Prather is president of this organization.

The Y. W. C. A. which has its own building on the campus, was built by contributions of friends at the cost of $8,000. The building has a large room which is the center of the social life for the girls and open at all times for committee meetings, social affairs, study etc. In addition to the main room, there is a spacious rest room provided with couches and a kitchenette. This building called the "Hut" has been furnished and equipped by generous friends.

The Honor Society consists of twenty-two members of which fourteen are girls.

Eleanor Turner, Joy Wilson and Mary Bruner are members of the Beta Gama.

Dorothy Harmon is president of the W. A. A., the girls athletic association. Nineteen girls received basketball letters this year. The Y. W. C. A. is headed by Mary Bruner. Social functions are held regularly in the "Hut".

Vulgar Collegians

By VIRGINIA THOMAS

Toot! Toot! The people surrounding me, turned around and gazed at something which caused a murmur to go through the crowd. Some people grunted in disgust, others laughed, and a few sighed, and shook their heads. I wondered what all these expressions were for, and, as I crossed the street, I looked up. Now what do you think I saw? Bearing down upon me was a red and yellow Ford with broad black stripes running around the sides. I looked again (after I had removed myself from danger) and saw various lamps and canteens hanging from all parts of this strange car. On the sides were printed mottos such as "Take it or leave it", "One way car", and "Better late than never". In the back, a long pipe rose into the air like a chimney, and from it issued puffs of smoke.

In this car were seated two college boys, wearing bright blazers, and red skull caps. One of these boys held the wheel with a careless hand, while the other lay back in his seat, his feet propped high on the dashboard. The boys were laughing about something, and were seemingly unconscious of the attention which they were attracting.

I was greatly amused, and as I stood on the street corner, I was thinking of college life. Two elderly ladies nearby began to talk of this "sad spectacle" which they had just witnessed.

"Do you know," said one, "I believe that the young people must be going mad. Why, the idea of college men acting in such a manner."

"In my day", replied the other, a tall, thin woman, "the college men were bent on their studies, and not on pleasure. Don't you think, in these days, young people have too much time for mischief?" Her companion sighed very spiritually, and answered, "yes, and I know just what you mean. I think that the collegians of today are really "vulgar".

Since I attended college, these remarks irritated me, and I moved to a more desirable location. The conversation which I had overheard set me to thinking. I, quite naturally, did not agree with those two, worthy ladies. I realized that the bright blazers and jaunty caps perhaps, seemed silly to others, but to those who wear them, they signify the colors, and loyalty of their college. College spirit is often too beautiful a thing to be called "vulgar" by those who do not know its true meaning.

The elder people do not seem to remember that in the "good old days" such fads as "tight trousers" and "tandem bicycles" were prevalent. Those things seem just as queer to modern youth, as our fads seem to them.

Far be it from me to preach, Those things seem just as queer to modern youth, as our fads seem to them.

Far be it from me to preach, but I do believe that some people should realize that times change. Perhaps these same college boys, who ride around in their "collegiate cars", today, may one day sit in a large office marked "private", and successfully direct a large company. Therefore, let us kindly, but firmly, teach those who say "vulgar collegians" to remember their own youthful fancies.

Original Sketches Feature German Club

Group songs, original sketches, and readings from various members of the class will be featured at the German club meeting Friday afternoon in Miss Watson's room.

According to Paul Mueller there is new business as well as old to be discussed. At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served.

Imagine Mr. Bruff's embarrassment when out snagging butterflies when "Doro" Goff asked. Thayer Misher, are you the dog catcher?

Hockey Spread To Furnish Excitement

Skulls, cross-bones, and red lanterns will be the order of the evening when the valiant wielders of the sticks meet on March 25, at 5:30 for their hockey spread.

For those who venture forth a snappy program has been planned, and just rewards are in store for those who have received bruised shins in battle. Amid weird scenes, strange events will furnish excitement in plenty for all.

According to remarks Carl Bergman has made Jane Stewart certainly must have made a hit with the stars down at Laguna Beach. As you will know, she took part in "Evageline". More power to you, Jane.

Dons Lose to Long Beach Team

Cook's Squad Defeated By Long Beach In Second Dual Meet 89 1-2-42 1-2; Guyer Dons High Point Man

Coach "Oak" Smith's Long Beach J. C. tracksters easily took the measure of the Santa Ana Dons, last Saturday on their own cinderpath by an 89 1-3 to 421-3 score.

The meet was only shortly under way when it began to rain, and this possibly kept the Dons from taking some points which they would have had under normal conditions. A slippery runway deprived the boys from doing as well as they might have in the high jump, pole vault and javelin.

The "Red" flash, Maurice "Red" Guyer, was only able to clip off a 10.2 in the century and a 24 flat in the century and a 24 flat in the fur-long, his competition was not stiff enough to require a faster race.

Adams turned in a flashy race by capturing the 880. The Dons were totally at loss in the field events with the exception of Beatty in the javelin and Rimell in the pole vault.

The summary:

100 yard dash—Guyer (SA), Barnes (LB), McFadden (LB), 10.2 sec.

1 mile Run—Schlobaum (LB), Hoff (LB), Dews (SA). Time 5:09.3.

440—Ray (LB), Fleming (LB),

Williams (SA). Time 55 seconds.

120 yd. High Hurdles—Carls (LB) Sweetnam (SA), Schooling (SA).

Pole Vault—Rimel (SA), Miller (LB), Doyle (LB). Height 10 feet.

High Jump—Valentine (SA) and Boyer (LB) tied for first, McFadden (LB) and Fletcher (LB) tied for second, Sweetnam (SA) third. Height, 5 feet 4 inches.

Shot Put—Forbes (LB), Fleming (LB), Herman (LB). Distance, 40 feet 1 inch.

Javelin—Forbes (LB), Beatty (SA), Herman (LB). 161 feet, 8 inches.

Discus—Forbest (LB), Herman (LB), Valentine (SA). 120 feet 6 inches.

Broad Jump—McFadden (LB), Beatty (SA), Osborne (LB). Distance 19 feet, 6 inches.

4 Man Mile Relay—Long Beach won 3:51.5 Santa Ana was second. won 3:51.5. Santa Ana was second moving California junior colleges from the status of secondary schools, out the class of high schools. It was emphasized that junior colleges are not actually secondary educational institutions and that the fact that they are classed as such is proving detrimental.

Luncheon was had at the Oak Tree Inn where Scoop Gleason and Pat Frayne of the San Francisco Call were guest speakers. Long Beach was elected president of the association at a short business meeting following the luncheon and the convention next fall is to be held in that city. Santa Ana was named secretary by Long Beach.
